RPLS&D GENERAL RULES

1. QUALIFICATION OF PLAYERS – SUMMER LEAGUE

- i. Any bona-fide member of a team shall be eligible to play for that team subject to the following rule of qualification.
- ii. Registration of players is not required for the RPLS&D Summer League, but a player having played for one team is not allowed to play for another.
- iii. Any team found guilty of the above offence will be deemed to have lost the match the ineligible player has participated in.
- iv. Players must play at least two fixtures/matches during the league section of the summer league to be eligible to play in the Champion of Champions KO and KO Plate at the end of the season.

2. QUALIFICATION OF PLAYERS – WINTER LEAGUE

- i. All players/teams must be registered.
- ii. A player/team is duly registered when the League Registrations Secretary is in possession of a fully completed League Registration form.
- iii. Registration forms shall be obtained from the League Registrations Secretary.
- iv. Teams will be registered on the registration night. Any registrations made after the appointed registration night will incur a £10 administration charge. Registration night will take place one week prior to the start of the season.
- v. The Management Committee shall decide all Registration disputes.
- vi. It shall be deemed misconduct for a player to:-
 - i. Play for more than one team in the League in the same season without first having been transferred.
 - ii. Having signed for one team in the League, sign for another team in the League in that season except for the purpose of transfer.
- vii. Teams found to have played an unregistered player will be deemed to have lost the frame the unregistered player participated in. The team will also be deducted one point from their team's total, regardless of whether the offending player won or lost that frame.
- viii. The deadline for transfer is midway through the season.
- ix. Notification of all transfers shall be received by the Registrations Secretary 48 hours before the match in which the player first plays. Such notification shall consist of a fully completed transfer form with both team captains signatures agreeing the transfer and a second registration form completed by the transferring player, a charge will be made for each transfer.
- x. A register containing the names of all members for each team, with the date of registration shall be kept by the Registrations Secretary and shall be open to the inspection of any duly appointed member team representative at all Management Committee Meetings or at other times mutually agreed with the Registration Secretary.

RPLS&D GENERAL RULES

- xi. The Management Committee shall have the power to refuse registration or to de-register a player should such registration be seen, in view of the Committee to be contrary to the spirit of the game.
- xii. The maximum number of players allowed to be registered for a team at any one time shall be twelve.

3. SUMMER SEASON PLAYING FORMAT

- i. In the Summer League all Winters League divisions will be mixed together and drawn out into sections.
- ii. Each section winner and runner up goes forward to compete in the Champion of Champions draw.
- iii. Matches to commence at 8pm.
- iv. Matches shall consist of five singles followed by five singles.
- v. In the event of a late arrival of a team, captains are entitled but not obliged to claim one frame each quarter hour after the 8:30pm deadline.
- vi. Do not enter the name of a player on the card until the player is at the venue. Leave the last position blank on the card until the player arrives.
- vii. One point will be awarded for each frame won by their players.
- viii. Breaking shall be carried out on an alternative basis following the toss of a coin at the start of the match. The home team will referee the odd numbered frames the away team will referee the even numbered frames.
- ix. All captains must ensure that persons delegated for refereeing duties are fully conversant with every aspect of the World 8 Ball Pool rules.
- x. Coaching is not allowed under any circumstances. If coaching does occur then the Referee must give warning. Should the offence be repeated the Referee must award two shots against the offending team. Because it may not always be possible for the referee to hear if a statement made to a player is advice, the referee may issue the first and final warning on the grounds that any statement made to a player, other than general barracking, is deemed to be coaching, this includes speaking in a language that the referee does not understand.
- xi. All captains and Referees must ensure that spectators do not interfere verbally or otherwise. Failing to do so may result in the loss of any frame in which an incident occurs.
- xii. The Referee's decision is final.

4. WINTER SEASON PLAYING FORMAT

- i. A Team shall consist of a minimum of six players. For each player less than six the team shall concede two frames. If a team is one player short, positions six and twelve are left blank, if a team is two players short, positions five and eleven are left blank. A minimum of four players required to play.
- ii. Six singles followed by six singles. No player shall play more than twice in one match.

RPLS&D GENERAL RULES

- iii. In the event of a points tie at the season end, positions will be decided by the team with the most frames for. Then by the results of the Head to Head and finally by a playoff on a neutral venue.
- iv. Matches to commence at 8pm
- v. In the event of a late arrival of a team, captains are entitled but not obliged to claim one frame each quarter hour after the 8:30pm deadline.
- vi. Do not enter the name of a player on the card until the player is at the venue. Leave the last position blank on the card until the player arrives.
- vii. Breaking shall be carried out on an alternative basis following the toss of a coin at the start of the match. The home team will referee the odd numbered frames the away team will referee the even numbered frames.
- viii. All captains and Referees must ensure that spectators do not interfere verbally or otherwise. Failing to do so may result in the loss of any frame in which an incident occurs.
- ix. Coaching is not allowed under any circumstances. If coaching does occur then the Referee must give warning. Should the offence be repeated the Referee must award two shots against the offending team. Because it may not always be possible for the referee to hear if a statement made to a player is advice, the referee may issue the first and final warning on the grounds that any statement made to a player, other than general barracking, is deemed to be coaching, this includes speaking in a language that the referee does not understand.
- x. The Referee's decision is final.
